1. The Communist forces in Korea have established an ammunition depot at Kimpangp'o (?) (6855/0972/5291) in Ch'ŏrwŏn (6933/0626), which is one of the ammunition supply points for Communist troops on the western battlefront of Ch'ŏrwŏn. Kimpangp'o is a small village, which is in a saucer-shaped depression, about 3 kilometers westnorthwest of Ch'ŏrwŏn.
2. Fourteen caves, each 5 meters high, 20 meters long and 10 meters wide, have been dug into a small hill south of Kimpangp'o for the storage of ammunition. A military motor road has been constructed from Kimpangp'o to Ch'ŏrwŏn.
3. All civilian residents of Kimpangp'o have been evacuated, and the buildings in this village are used as dormitories and offices of the troops stationed there. This depot is normally garrisoned by 1 platoon (pae 2226) of Communist troops. No air defense installations have been established to protect this depot.
